Events Description (Excerpt from the Rule Book)

The contest starts with stand in each event.

Time (1st round):

Gi and NoGi:	Manó (Tiny)	2 mins,	Gyermek1-2 (Child)	3 mins,
	Ifjúsági1-2 (Juvenile)	4 mins,	Junior	5 mins,
	Felnőtt (Adult)	6 mins,	Master, Senior1	5 mins,
	Senior2-3	4 mins,	Senior4-5	3 mins,
	Senior6-9	2 mins
Combat:	Junior	3 mins,	Felnőtt (Adult)	4 mins,
	Master, Senior1	3 mins,	Senior2-3	2 mins
Gloved:	Junior	2 mins,	Felnőtt (Adult)	3 mins,
	Master, Senior1-3	2 mins
NoGi Open:	8 mins
Superfight:	15 mins

Fact of Winning: The contest may be won by surrender, judging by points, technical knockout, or if one contestant is unable to continue the match. For example is one contestant is unable to fight (falls asleep, goes unconscious, or in Combat Grappling or Gloved Combat he is unable to continue after a hard hit/kick [combination], or the referee stops the match. The match may not end in a tie. Surrender may be shown by hand, leg or voice. The contestant must refrain from signs that can be interpreted as sign of surrender.

Events Description (Excerpt from the Rule Book)

Overtime: Provided there was no surrender, technical knockout and the points are tied, overtime comes. Before overtime, the referee must name the beneficiary, who shall win, if the overtime ends in tie, too. Beneficiary shall be the contestant, who received higher points, or who is named by the lead referee. Overtime is 1 minute in Gloved Combat, in all other events, the half of the first round.

Superfight is a special event: only one round, 15 mins, no overtime. Submission only.

Hit and kick: In Gi and NoGi is forbidden, in Combat Grappling and Gloved Combat is allowed with the following restrictions:

- Hits and kicks must be controlled.
- No hits or kicks to spine, knee or groin.
- No hit by the elbow, no hammer-blow to the head.
- Kicks are allowed only if both contestant stands.
- Head or neck kick is allowed only with roundhouse kick. Kicking surface must be covered by protective gear or may be the foot, never the heel.
- Head and neck may be hit only in gloves. When in gloves, the face, the area in front of the ears from forehead to chin may be attacked.

Combat Grappling – no points are awarded, the contestant may weaken the opponents with these hits.

Gloved Combat – the match shall be stopped in every minute and the lead referee points both contestants' hit and kick performance.

Shortening: If no activity or effort to technique is shown, the lead referee may order a 10 second shortening. If no activity is shown during the 10 seconds shortening, the contestant(s) shall be warned and the match continues in a standing.

Restrictions by Age Groups: Choking, Stretching, Kidney Catch, Folding and Jumping Techniques (e.g. flying armbar) is allowed from up Junior age groups. No points shall be awarded, but they may result in knocking down.

Under the Junior age group, the following restrictions shall apply:

- Manó (Tiny) age group – none of the above techniques may be applied.
- Gyermek 1 (Child 1) age group – arm stretching is allowed, after 3 seconds, the referee shall stop the match, even lacking the knocking down. Up from Gyermek 2 (Child 2) age group only knock down shall stop the stretching.
- Ifjúsági 1 (Juvenile 1) age group – choking is allowed. Triangle on the neck is choking, thus only allowed from this age group.
- Ifjúsági 2 (Juvenile 1) age group – leg stretch is allowed from this age group. Global Grappling allows only straight leg stretch, no twisting.
- Manó (Tiny) and Gyermek 1-2 (Child 1-2) age groups – Folding is not allowed. This also means that in standing position, upper grip may be followed only pulling, no pushing!

Events Description (Excerpt from the Rule Book)

Further forbidden techniques:

- Throwing the opponent to the ground after lifting her/him up (SLAMMING), throwing the opponent to her neck or head.
- Grabbing, pressing the throat, groin.
- Grabbing the skin, biting, stinging, scratching, pulling the opponent's hair, head-butting.
- Stretching, twisting the fingers or toes, stretching the wrist, opening the knee or elbow joint.
- Stretching the spine (e.g. pushing the head to the chest, can-opener, stretching the spine back etc.).
- Sudden pull of the choking or stretching (time must be given to TAP).
- Put the hand into the opponents face (eye, nose, mouth), covering the opponent's mouth or nose, tearing the ear.
- Stretching the leg or hand with a twist, groveling. After a full revolution the further turn shall be counted as groveling.

Points:

Points may be awarded for actions and reactions (to the executing contestant), or for penalty (to the opponent).

- Action points – 1 to 4 points may be awarded, as detailed below.
- Reaction Point – 1 point may be awarded, if with our active participation we break free of a control position, grounding, for which our opponent has been awarded with at least one point.
- Penalty point shall be awarded, if our contestant shall be punished.

A. Action point may be awarded for throw and grounding:

- The grounding does not necessarily results in point. Only those groundings shall be awarded by action point, where there is an originator, active contestant, the grounding is intentional and successful.
- Clear, arched throw: 3 or 4 points.
- Grounding with a recognizable throwing technique: 2 point. If one contestant goes on the ground (sits, lies down etc.) the opponent shall receive 2 points.
- All other (even partial) grounding, even if the opponent jumps into guard: 1 point. Contact, grip and upper position at the end of the grounding is necessary.

B. Action point may be awarded for acquiring control position (full control):

- The referee shall award the point after appr. 3 seconds.
- Sidelong position: 2 point.
- Mount position: 3 points.
- Back mount position: 4 points.
- For acquiring the control position, the opponent does not necessarily have to lie on the ground, for example 4 points control position may be awarded if the opponent is frog position or sits in the other contestant's lap.
- Double mill is forbidden, thus from a 2, 3, 4 points technique only one may be awarded with points, until the opponent obtains points or the match resumes in standing position.

Events Description (Excerpt from the Rule Book)

C. Action points shall be awarded for maintaining the control position on the ground (force down).

- Force down is reached if the contestant holding the position is in upper position, the opponent lies on her back, chests in contact. Both legs of the contestant forcing down shall touch the ground and no legs of hers may be in grip.
- For holding the position 1 point is awarded for every 10 or 5 seconds. 5 seconds applied in Manó (Tiny), Gyermek (Child), Ifjúsági (Juvenile) age groups, 10 seconds apply in Junior, Felnőtt (Adult) and Senior age groups.
- The lead referee shall signal the holding the position and the display shall show the time of the force down.
- If four points has been reached, force down is over, the match shall resume in middle standing position.

D. Action point are awarded in Gloved Combat for the hits and kicks .:

- The timer is stopped at the end of each minute.
- The lead referee shall give points for the hit and kick performance of both contestants between 0 and four points.
- Contest shall resume in standing position.

E. In overtime the points are continuously given.

Penalty: Penalty may be given for passivity, fleeing, mocking or interrupted contest, indecent behavior, violation of the rules.

Penalty shall be awarded gradually, the contestant must be informed of the grades of penalty.

- The match is stopped by the referee (even after the action) and informs the contestant the reasons for warning or punishing.
- 1. occasion: warning (no point awarded to the opponent).
- For the same violation, 2. occasion: warning or penalty (in latter case, 1 point to the opponent).
- Further occasions: penalty (2 points awarded to the opponent) or technical knockout.
- Immediate technical knockout is possible!
